Update

AMAA Appeal for Disaster in Missouri

The Armenian Missionary Association of America (AMAA) has issued an urgent appeal to help provide humanitarian aid to the people in Joplin, MO who have been affected by the May 22 tornado, the country's deadliest tornado in more than 60 years.

As an expression of our Christian concern and solidarity, the AMAA requests that members of our community prayerfully consider making an emergency relief offering. The AMAA, the missionary arm of the Armenian Evangelical churches worldwide, remains committed to the needs of disaster victims worldwide. Donations received from our members will be channeled through the Wider Church Ministries of United Church of Christ, a longtime international colleague agency of the AMAA.

We ask that you keep the families left devastated by this disaster in your prayers and consider making a contribution to support their urgent needs.

Thank you and God bless.
